

H610.5

I62

H77

C 339062 B

Constitution adopted by unan
Assembly—Evening Session, August

"Similia Similibus"

INTERNATIONAL HOMŒOP

Affiliated with the Quinquennial Inter Congresses.

PURPOSE.

The Extension and Development
Countries of the World, outside of The METHOD.

The utilisation of the reciprocal su
pathic Interests of different countries o
"Each for all and all for each."

ADMINISTRATION

By delegates, chosen ad hoc by E
Societies, acting through an appointed E purely honorary appointments.

CONSTITUTION.

1. The International Homœopathic Council shall consist of Delegates, each being legally qualified to practise in his own country, and chosen annually in allotted number by the Professional Homœopathic Societies of the Countries represented.
2. The Council at each Annual Meeting shall elect a President, at least two Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a General Secretary, and an Associate or Travelling Secretary. These shall constitute an Executive Committee.
3. The Executive Committee shall have power to add to its number ad interim: and may also appoint a chargé d'affaires for each country which is represented on the Council, through whom the necessary communications to such countries shall be made.

PROCEDURE.

1. The Council shall meet annually at a place and time to be decided at the previous annual meeting.
2. The procedure of the Meeting shall be by Agenda previously approved by the President, with such additions as may be required by the meeting, and subject to the approval of the President. Any delegate may present any point for Congress debate, up to one month prior to any annual Congress, by submitting same in writing to the Honorary Secretary.

3. Voting shall be by show of hands, and if the vote be challenged, the final decision shall be made by voting by countries, each country to have one vote ; and where the delegates of any country are equally divided, the vote of that country shall be null. In the event of the vote by the totality of countries being equally divided, the President shall have the casting vote.
4. If the President be absent from the Council Meeting, his duties shall be performed by one of the Vice-Presidents, subject to the approval of the Meeting.
5. The Executive shall present at each Meeting an account of the work done during the preceding year : and receive also general instructions for the conduct of business during the ensuing twelve months.
6. At each meeting of the International Homœopathic Congress a report of the proceedings of the International Homœopathic Council shall be presented to the Congress. The International Homœopathic Council shall most attentively consider any suggestions as to its work which such Congress may make.
7. Homœopathic medical men and women, legally qualified to practise, may attend the Meetings of the Council, and may speak at the invitation of the President, but they may not vote.

FINANCIAL REGULATIONS.

1. Voluntary donations to the funds of the Council will be received by the Treasurer, who will report the detail to each Meeting of the Executive.
2. The Annual Meeting of the Council may authorise the expenditure of special sums for specific purposes as agreed upon. The Executive to have, in the interim, full discretionary power as to the expenditure of funds in the Treasurer's hands.
3. Orders for payment must be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by the President or a Vice-President.
4. A full Balance Sheet shall be included in the Report of the Executive to each Annual Council.
5. The Executive may contract obligations up to the amount for which they have funds actually in hand.